

PLAZA COLLEGE SECURITY REPORT 2017

INTRODUCTION

Plaza College is justifiably proud of its record in maintaining the safety of our community as shown in the enclosed federally reported crime statistics. The Forest Hills campus has been designed with security in mind. Plaza College has a single, dedicated entrance with safety officers prominently stationed to control access to the campus. The new campus is a compact institution with a strong administrative presence. As a College with a transitory commuter population, serious crime has not been an issue at Plaza. Our building has heightened security because of the presence of offices for federal, state and city legislators, which includes camera surveillance of the building front by the NYPD. With the Queens Courthouse and District Attorney's office within blocks of the College, the safety of our neighborhood benefits with the presence of FEMA, the FBI, the Treasury Department, and Secret Service.

TIMELY WARNINGS

Plaza College has created a number of channels to provide information to the community in the event of an emergency. All members of the College community are automatically enrolled in EMS Text Messaging. The College can also choose to send emails about emergency conditions. Members of the campus community may also call the main number (718) 779-1430 for recorded announcements. Finally, the College has a speaker system, accessible to administrators, to speak to the entire on-campus community in the event of an emergency.

In accordance with Article 129-a of the New York State Education Law, Plaza College has appointed the following to Advisory Committee on Campus Security: Administrators (2 male, 1 female), Faculty and Staff (1 male, 2 female), and Students (2 female).

Sexual Assault

SEXUAL ASSAULT AND RAPE INFORMATION

Sexual assault involves intercourse, unwelcome physical contact, or any other sexual activity with a person who does not give free and full consent. Anyone can be raped, regardless of age, sex, appearance, or way of dressing. No matter what the circumstances, if you have been raped, a vicious crime has been committed against you. You are not to blame!

WHAT TO DO IF YOU HAVE BEEN SEXUALLY ASSAULTED OR RAPED

- Go to a safe place.
- Report the assault immediately to the school administration and/or the police at the above numbers.
- Authorities recommend that you do not change your clothes, wash, shower, brush your teeth, use mouthwash, comb your hair, or urinate. Doing so may eliminate important evidence which could lead to the arrest of your attacker.
- Authorities recommend that you go to a hospital emergency room. Medical evidence is collected there. NOTE: You are not obligated to press charges; however, this evidence is important if you later decide to prosecute. Bring a full change of clothing as what you were wearing at the time of the attack may be kept as evidence.
- Make sure to seek counseling. Rape is a traumatic experience, and a trained person can help you deal with your feelings. The numbers above will link you to services that will help.

Domestic Violence

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

If you are a victim of domestic violence, inform the police and the Dean of Student Services immediately. If you move to a shelter, inform Student Services not to release any information without your written consent. If you receive an order of protection, please bring a copy of the order and if possible a photo that we can distribute to campus safety officials. Contact the numbers above to link you to services that will help. If the person who is abusing you is a member of the Plaza College community, that person will be sanctioned under the Code of Conduct, which includes the possibility of expulsion.

Stalking

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE BEING STALKED

If someone repeatedly acts in a manner that makes you fear for your safety, property, mental health, or employment, you are being stalked (see Appendix C for the text of New York law regarding stalking). You should report stalking to the police and Student Services. If you receive an order of protection, please bring a copy of the order and if possible a photo that we can distribute to campus safety officials. Contact the numbers above to link you to services that will help. If the person who is stalking you is a member of the Plaza College community, that person will be sanctioned under the Code of Conduct, which includes the possibility of expulsion.

AFFIRMATIVE CONSENT (NYS 129-b 6441)

Affirmative consent is a knowing, voluntary, and mutual decision among all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

Community Guidance on Consent (NYS 129-b 6441 (2) (A.-F.)

- Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not necessarily constitute consent to any other sexual act.*
- Consent is required regardless of whether the person initiating the act is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.*

- c. Consent may be initially given but withdrawn at any time.
- d. Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated, which occurs when an individual lacks the ability to knowingly choose to participate in sexual activity. Incapacitation may be caused by the lack of consciousness or being asleep, being involuntarily restrained, or if an individual otherwise cannot consent. Depending on the degree of intoxication, someone who is under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants may be incapacitated and therefore unable to consent.
- e. Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force, or threat of harm.
- f. When consent is withdrawn or can no longer be given, sexual activity must stop.

Minors who cannot consent under New York’s laws covering age of consent are considered incapacitated for purposes of §6441(2)(d).

Whether all parties consented to sexual activity or contact is to be determined through the student conduct or grievance process. Per Section 6444(5)(c)(ii), respondents have a “right to a presumption that the respondent is ‘not responsible’ until a finding of responsibility is made pursuant to the provisions of this article.” This means that the burden of showing that a student had sexual activity or contact with another without affirmative consent as defined here is on the institution, not on the respondent to prove a negative. Note that the burden is on the institution to develop these facts, not on the reporting individual, who may participate at the level to which he or she is comfortable. Through the process, appropriate officials may listen to witnesses and review available evidence to make a determination, to the best of their ability, whether it is more likely than not that a policy violation occurred.

Individuals who are incapacitated cannot consent to sexual activity or contact. Incapacitation is to be determined by a student conduct hearing based on available evidence, acknowledging that in almost no cases will scientific evidence of alcohol or drug level (such as a breathalyzer taken at the time of the assault) be available. There is no single standard or number of drinks that leads to incapacitation. This level varies for different people, and may depend in part on their age, gender, height, weight, metabolism and whether and how much they have recently eaten. This provision does not mean that individuals cannot affirmatively consent to 10 sexual activity or contact when they have been drinking or using drugs. Such individuals may still affirmatively consent through words or actions that clearly indicate interest in engaging in the activity. Someone who is unconscious, asleep, or involuntarily restrained cannot consent to sexual activity.

CODE OF CONDUCT (New York State Education Law 129-b)

You have the right to make a report to the NYPD, and/or state police or choose not to report; to report the incident to Plaza College; to be protected by Plaza College from retaliation for reporting an incident; and to receive assistance and resources from Plaza College.

NO CONTACT

When the accused or respondent is a student, Plaza College will issue a “no contact order” consistent with Plaza policies and procedures, whereby continued intentional contact with the reporting individual would be a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and subject to additional conduct charges; if the accused or respondent and a reporting individual observe each other in a public place, it shall be the responsibility of the accused or respondent to leave the area immediately and without directly contacting the reporting individual. Both the accused or respondent and the reporting individual shall, upon request and consistent with Plaza College policies and procedures, be afforded a prompt review, reasonable under the circumstances, of the need for and terms of a no contact order, including potential modification, and shall be allowed to submit evidence in support of his or her request.

ORDERS OF PROTECTION

Reporting individuals will be assisted by the Plaza officials in obtaining an order of protection or, if outside of New York state, an equivalent protective or restraining order. Reporting individuals can receive assistance to call on and assist local law enforcement in effecting an arrest for violating such an order, provided that nothing in this article shall limit current law enforcement jurisdiction and procedures.

The accused or respondent has the right to receive a copy of the order of protection or equivalent when received by Plaza College and have an opportunity to meet or speak with an appropriate individual, who can explain the order and answer questions about it, including information from the order about the accused's responsibility to stay away from the protected person or persons. Additionally, the accused or respondent has the right to an explanation of the consequences for violating these orders, including but not limited to arrest, additional conduct charges, and interim suspension.

ALCOHOL/DRUG USE AMNESTY (NYS 129-b 6442)

The health and safety of every student at Plaza College is of utmost importance. Plaza recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or using drugs (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary) at the time that violence, including but not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault occurs may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct. Plaza College strongly encourages students to report domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to institution officials. A bystander acting in good faith or a reporting individual acting in good faith that discloses any incident of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to Plaza College officials or law enforcement will not be subject to [Plaza's] code of conduct action for violations of alcohol and/or drug use policies occurring at or near the time of the commission of the domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault.

CODE OF CONDUCT BILL OF RIGHTS (NYS 129-b 6443)

All students have the right to:

1. Make a report to local law enforcement and/or state police;
2. Have disclosures of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault treated seriously;
3. Make a decision about whether or not to disclose a crime or violation and participate in the conduct process and/or criminal justice process free from pressure by Plaza;
4. Participate in a process that is fair, impartial, and provides adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard;
5. Be treated with dignity and to receive from Plaza College courteous, fair, and respectful health care and counseling services, where available;
6. Be free from any suggestion that the reporting individual is at fault when these crimes and violations are committed, or should have acted in a different manner to avoid such crimes or violations;
7. Describe the incident to as few College representatives as practicable and not be required to unnecessarily repeat a description of the incident;
8. Be protected from retaliation by Plaza College, any student, the accused and/or the respondent, and/or their friends, family and acquaintances within the jurisdiction of Plaza College;
9. Access to at least one level of appeal of a determination;
10. Be accompanied by an advisor of choice who may assist and advise a reporting individual, accused, or respondent throughout the conduct process including during all meetings and hearings related to such process; and
11. Exercise civil rights and practice of religion without interference by the investigative, criminal justice, or judicial or conduct process of Plaza College

SECTION 504 & TITLE IX GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Plaza College has adopted an internal grievance procedure for the timely and equitable resolution of complaints alleging any action prohibited by U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Civil Rights regulations, implementing Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (29 U.S.C. 794). Section 504 states, in part, that "no otherwise qualified handicapped individual... shall, solely by reason of his handicap, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance..." Title IX prohibits discrimination, exclusion, denial, limitation, or separation based on gender against students and employees of educational institutions.

Complaints should be addressed to: Dean Lin Loffert
118-33 Queens Boulevard
Forest Hills, New York 11375
(718) 505-7137

1. A complaint should be filed in writing, contain the name and address of the person filing it, and briefly describe the alleged violation of the regulations within ten business days after the complainant becomes aware of the alleged violation.
2. An investigation, as may be appropriate, shall follow a filing of a complaint. The investigation shall be conducted by the Provost. These rules outline informal but thorough investigations, affording all interested persons and their representatives, if any, an opportunity to submit evidence relevant to a complaint. Under the U.S. Department of Justice regulations, Plaza College need not process complaints from applications for employment or from applicants for admission.
3. A written determination as to the validity of the complaint and a description of the resolution, if any, shall be issued by the Provost, and a copy forwarded to the complainant no later than ten business days after its filing.
4. The Section 504 and Title IX coordinator shall maintain the files and records of Plaza College relating to the complaints filed.
5. The complainant can request a reconsideration of the case in instances where he or she is dissatisfied with the resolution. The request for reconsideration should be made within five business days to the President of the College.
6. The right of a person to a prompt and equitable resolution of the complaint filed hereunder shall not be impaired by the person's pursuit of other remedies such as the filing of a Section 504 or Title IX complaint with the responsible federal department or agency. Utilization of this grievance procedure is not a prerequisite to the pursuit of other remedies.
7. These rules shall be construed to protect the substantive rights of interested persons, to meet appropriate due process standards, and to assure that Plaza College complies with Section 504 and Title IX implementing regulations.

TRANSCRIPT NOTATIONS ON CLERY ACT VIOLATIONS (NYS 129-b 6444b)

For crimes of violence, including, but not limited to sexual violence, defined as crimes that meet the reporting requirements pursuant to the federal Clery Act established in 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(1)(F)(i)(I)-(VIII), Plaza College shall make a notation on the transcript of students found responsible after a conduct process that they were “suspended after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation” or “expelled after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation.” For the respondent who withdraws from the institution while such conduct charges are pending, and declines to complete the disciplinary process, institutions shall make a notation on the transcript of such students that they “withdrew with conduct charges pending.” Each institution shall publish a policy on transcript notations and appeals seeking removal of a transcript notation for a suspension, provided that such notation shall not be removed prior to one year after conclusion of the suspension, while notations for expulsion shall not be removed. If a finding of responsibility is vacated for any reason, any such transcript notation shall be removed.

INVESTIGATION OF VIOLENT FELONY OFFENSES AND MISSING PERSONS ON CAMPUS (NYS 129-a 6434)

Plaza College cooperates with the New York City Police Department on the investigation of violent felony offenses. Notwithstanding a complainant's election to proceed in family court, the criminal court shall not be divested of jurisdiction to hear a family offense proceeding pursuant to this section. For purposes of this section, "disorderly conduct" includes disorderly conduct not in a public place. For purposes of this section, "members of the same family or household" with respect to a proceeding in the criminal courts shall mean the following:

- (a) persons related by consanguinity or affinity;
- (b) persons legally married to one another;
- (c) persons formerly married to one another regardless of whether they still reside in the same household;
- (d) persons who have a child in common, regardless of whether such persons have been married or have lived together at any time; and

Factors the court may consider in determining whether a relationship is an "intimate relationship" include but are not limited to: the nature or type of relationship, regardless of whether the relationship is sexual in nature; the frequency of interaction between the persons; and the duration of the relationship. Neither a casual acquaintance nor ordinary fraternization between two individuals in business or social contexts shall be deemed to constitute an "intimate relationship".

2. Information to petitioner or complainant. The chief administrator of the courts shall designate the appropriate probation officers, warrant officers, sheriffs, police officers, district attorneys or any other law enforcement officials, to inform any petitioner or complainant bringing a proceeding under this section before such proceeding is commenced, of the procedures available for the institution of family offense proceedings, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) That there is concurrent jurisdiction with respect to family offenses in both family court and the criminal courts;
- (b) That a family court proceeding is a civil proceeding and is for the purpose of attempting to stop the violence, end family disruption and obtain protection. That referrals for counseling, or counseling services, are available through probation for this purpose;

- (f) That an arrest may precede the commencement of a family court or a criminal court proceeding, but an arrest is not a requirement for commencing either proceeding.

(h) At such time as the complainant first appears before the court on a complaint or information, the court shall advise the complainant that the complainant may: continue with the proceeding in criminal court; or have the allegations contained therein heard in a family court proceeding; or proceed concurrently in both criminal and family court. Notwithstanding a complainant's election to proceed in family court, the criminal court shall not be divested of jurisdiction to hear a family offense proceeding pursuant to this section;

(i) Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit or restrict complainant's rights to proceed directly and without court referral in either a criminal or family court, or both, as provided for in section one hundred fifteen of the family court act and section 100.07 of this chapter;

2-a. Upon the filing of an accusatory instrument charging a crime or violation described in subdivision one of this section between members of the same family or household, as such terms are defined in this section, or as soon as the complainant first appears before the court, whichever is sooner, the court shall advise the complainant of the right to proceed in both the criminal and family courts, pursuant to section 100.07 of this chapter.

3. Official responsibility. No official or other person designated pursuant to subdivision two of this section shall discourage or prevent any person who wishes to file a petition or sign a complaint from having access to any court for that purpose.

4. When a person is arrested for an alleged family offense or an alleged violation of an order of protection or temporary order of protection or arrested pursuant to a warrant issued by the supreme or family court, and the supreme or family court, as applicable, is not in session, such person shall be brought before a local criminal court in the county of arrest or in the county in which such warrant is returnable pursuant to article one hundred twenty of this chapter. Such local criminal court may issue any order authorized under subdivision eleven of section 530.12 of this article, section one hundred fifty-four-d or one hundred fifty-five of the family court act or subdivision three-b of section two hundred forty or subdivision two-a of section two hundred fifty-two of the domestic relations law, in addition to discharging other arraignment responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. In making such order, the local criminal court shall consider the bail recommendation, if any, made by the supreme or family court as indicated on the warrant or certificate of warrant. Unless the petitioner or complainant requests otherwise, the court, in addition to scheduling further criminal proceedings, if any, regarding such alleged family offense or violation allegation, shall make such matter returnable in the supreme or family court, as applicable, on the next day such court is in session.

5. Filing and enforcement of out-of-state orders of protection. A valid order of protection or temporary order of protection issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction shall be accorded full faith and credit and enforced as if it were issued by a court within the state for as long as the order remains in effect in the issuing jurisdiction in accordance with sections two thousand two hundred sixty-five and two thousand two hundred sixty-six of title eighteen of the United States Code.

(a) An order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction shall be deemed valid if:

(iii) in the case of orders of protection or temporary orders of protection issued against both a petitioner, plaintiff or complainant and respondent or defendant, the order or portion thereof sought to be enforced was supported by: (A) a pleading requesting such order, including, but not limited to, a petition, cross-petition or counterclaim; and (B) a judicial finding that the requesting party is entitled to the issuance of the order which may result from a judicial finding of fact, judicial acceptance of an admission by the party against whom the order was issued or judicial finding that the party against whom the order was issued had given knowing, intelligent and voluntary consent to its issuance.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of article fifty-four of the civil practice law and rules, an order of protection or temporary order of protection issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction, accompanied by a sworn affidavit that upon information and belief such order is in effect as written and has not been vacated or modified, may be filed without fee with the clerk of the court, who shall transmit information regarding such order to the statewide registry of orders of protection and warrants established pursuant to section two hundred twenty-one-a of the executive law; provided, however, that such filing and registry entry shall not be required for enforcement of the order.

6. Notice. Every police officer, peace officer or district attorney investigating a family offense under this article shall advise the victim of the availability of a shelter or other services in the community, and shall immediately give the victim written notice of the legal rights and remedies available to a victim of a family offense under the relevant provisions of the criminal procedure law, the family court act and the domestic relations law. Such notice shall be prepared in Spanish and English and if necessary, shall be delivered orally, and shall include but not be limited to the following statement:

"If you are the victim of domestic violence, you may request that the officer assist in providing for your safety and that of your children, including providing information on how to obtain a temporary order of protection. You may also request that the officer assist you in obtaining your essential personal effects and locating and taking you, or assist in making arrangements to take you, and your children to a safe place within such officer's jurisdiction, including but not limited to a domestic violence program, a family member's or a friend's residence, or a similar place of safety. When the officer's jurisdiction is more than a single county, you may ask the officer to take you or make arrangements to take you and your children to a place of safety in the county where the incident occurred. If you or your children are in need of medical treatment, you have the right to request that the officer assist you in obtaining such medical treatment. You may request a copy of any incident reports at no cost from the law enforcement agency. You have the right to seek legal counsel of your own choosing and if you proceed in family court and if it is determined that you cannot afford an attorney, one must be appointed to represent you without cost to you.

You may ask the district attorney or a law enforcement officer to file a criminal complaint. You also have the right to file a petition in the family court when a family offense has been committed against you. You have the right to have your petition and request for an order of protection filed on the same day you appear in court, and such request must be heard that same day or the next day court is in session. Either court may issue an order of protection from conduct constituting a family offense which could include, among other provisions, an order for the respondent or defendant to stay away from you and your children. The family court may also order the payment of temporary child support and award temporary custody of your children. If the family court is not in session, you may seek immediate assistance from the criminal court in obtaining an order of protection.

The forms you need to obtain an order of protection are available from the family court and the local criminal court (the addresses and telephone numbers shall be listed). The resources available in this community for information relating to domestic violence, treatment of injuries, and places of safety and shelters can be accessed by calling the following 800 numbers (the statewide English and Spanish language 800 numbers shall be listed and space shall be provided for local domestic violence hotline telephone numbers).

Filing a criminal complaint or a family court petition containing allegations that are knowingly false is a crime."

The division of criminal justice services in consultation with the state office for the prevention of domestic violence shall prepare the form of such written notice consistent with provisions of this section and distribute copies thereof to the appropriate law enforcement officials pursuant to subdivision nine of section eight hundred forty-one of the executive law.

Additionally, copies of such notice shall be provided to the chief administrator of the courts to be distributed to victims of family offenses through the criminal court at such time as such persons first come before the court and to the state department of health for distribution to all hospitals defined under article twenty-eight of the public health law. No cause of action for damages shall arise in favor of any person by reason of any failure to comply with the provisions of this subdivision except upon a showing of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

7. Rules of court regarding concurrent jurisdiction. The chief administrator of the courts, pursuant to paragraph (e) of subdivision two of section two hundred twelve of the judiciary law, shall promulgate rules to facilitate record sharing and other communication between the criminal and family courts, subject to applicable provisions of this chapter and the family court act pertaining to the confidentiality, expungement and sealing of records, when such courts exercise concurrent jurisdiction over family offense proceedings.
